and Expired in Five Minutes. A stout, well-dressed man of about forty square about 5 o'clock this morning, and stepping into the back room, called for a giass of whiskey, which was served to him.

A few moments later he fell unconscious to A few moments later he fell unconscious to the floor. An ambulance was summoned, but when it arrived the man was dead.

After the body was removed to the Oak street station his pockets were searched. In them were found a gold watch and chain, 808 in bills and several papers, none of which threw any light on his identity.

The unknown man wore a dark overcoat, dark undercoat, gray trousers and a derby hat. The body now lies at P. J. surphy's undertaking rooms, 63 Madison street. The Coroner will investigate the cause of death.

sent in Origoni's care under the name of Mrs. Riffend.

Mrs. Mason alleges that a number of her letters were stolen.

It is alleged that she wrote a letter to Secretary Bayard, charging Origoni with the theft of her letters, and that he had attempted to blackmail her.

Origoni says he was compelled to resign.

Letters were put in evidence this morning by Mrs. Mason's lawyer, written in Italian by Origoni to one frederic lenderto. In whiteh Origoni admitted he had resigned before Mrs. Neason wrote to secretary Bayard. The case is still on.

The Republican county macrine has formally re-erganized by the appointment of the usual stand-ing committees.

The North Dakota Democratic Convention to select delegates for the Cheago Convention will be held at Orani Forks March 24.

There was a red-hot light between the Hill and Cleveland men at the Warren County Convention at Warrensburg yesterday. The Hill men won.

A resolution indorsing Harrison was voted down by a conference of over one hundred leading Ala-bama Republicaus at Birmingham Wednesday night.

Necretary of the Navy Tracy was at the Navy-Yard yesterday and to-lay. Several Democratic employees there are wondering if he found them "inefficient."

The Cleveland faction in five Northwestern States have a general understanding among themselves to hold early conventions. North Dakota has led off with March 24.

The Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle, formerly a Cleve land organ, has come out for Hill, while the recent purchase of the Tribure at Atlanta will change that back to a Cleveland paper.

All of Tammany Hall's delegates to the Albany Convention have been chosen. It is noticeable that only eight of the twenty-four Assembly Dis-trict leaders will be delegates.

Both Cleveland and Hill have sent their regrets to the J. H. Moore Association, composed of the New Haven followers of Thomas Jefferson, who held their first annual soirce last evening.

Treatment of John Harper.

200 DOUBLE BREASTED, SIZES 5 TO 3 98 street. His wife was visiting in Brooklyn Sunday evening, and while about his work the jainter fell down the cellar stairs, and was found at the bottom unconscious.

When found flarper's face was covered with blood. It was an hour before the ambulance came in response to a cail, and Rev. P. J. Martin, of the Church of the Holy Name, was then by the unconscious jainter.

Father Martin said, with much indignation:

This young surgeon, only a few months out of college, only superficially examinated flarper. Then he said the man was drunk. It was apparent that he was seriously injured. When I suce sted that he ought to make a more thorough examination the young surgeon used foul and promate language to me, asked me what business it was of miline, and refused to take flarper to the hospital until I threatened to expose him. It was simply infamous. It is a shame that such any position should be given to such a person. Any surgeon with a spark of humanity would have done everything in his power to naid that poor, suffering man.

Mrs. De Moyne, one of the tenants of the flars, corroborates Father Martin. She said:

It was shameful inhumanity. If the doctor had taken any pains he might have found inch which, upon the jaintior's head, You could not occur in uger in it. It made my blood held to hear that stripling doctor order the police man to arrest an unconscious man bleeding to death.
